

Q: How do I apply for a store management position?

A: The preferred way to apply for a store management position is through our online Career Center. You can set up an account, create a profile, upload your resume, and apply for open positions.

Q: I'm already a Stage associate, where do I apply?

A: If you are a field team member or a Store Support Center associate, go to 'Corporate Open Positions' on the Intranet.

If you are a Store associate, on your personal computer, go to Stagestores.com and click on "careers" located under "corporate home" at the bottom of the page. Once you choose which location, you wish to apply, you will be directed to available store openings.

Q: Do you provide relocation for managers?

A: There are some positions within the company that qualify for relocation assistance, to find out if the one that you have been requested to interview for qualifies, please ask a Talent Acquisition Associate.

Q: How do I apply for positions at your Distribution Centers? Where are they located?

A: In the "careers" section, select "Choose Your Stage" and then select "Distribution Centers". You will then be directed to available DC openings.

We have Distribution Centers located in Jacksonville, TX, Jefferson, OH, and South Hill, VA

Q: Can I apply to more than one opening?

A: Yes. Every position is filled separately, so we encourage you to submit an application for every opportunity for which you'd like to be considered.

Q: How do I reset my password?

A: If you need to reset your password, navigate to the sign-in link and click 'Forgot your User Name?' or 'Forgot your Password?' below the login.

Q: My account is locked. What can I do to unlock it?

A: In order to allow adequate time for the account to reset, wait one hour and then try to login again. If you are unable to access your account, reset it with the 'Forgot your Password?' link before logging in again.

Q: What are my opportunities for career advancements/transfers?

A: Stage Stores encourages associates to continue developing their skills in ways that benefit them and the company. Promotions, transfers and special assignments are based on an associate's performance, as well as on his or her interests, background, skills and potential. Stage encourages associates to take an active role in their professional development. We support those efforts through tuition reimbursement, development programs and job postings.

Q: I was referred by a Stage Associate. What will happen next?

A: You must first complete a job application to be considered for hire. Ensure that you enter the associate number of the associate referring you in your application in order for him or her to be recognized. After review of your application, you'll be contacted by one of our talent acquisition specialists via phone or e-mail.

Q: I was referred for a specific job, but was not hired. Will I be considered for other jobs in the future?

A: Yes. By completing a job application on our system, your application will be considered (and potentially selected) by our Talent Acquisition team for up to 12 months. To increase your chances of being considered for future open jobs, we recommend that you return to this site and apply for new positions of interest.

---

Can I still apply for a job at Stage even if there isn't a specific position currently available that is of interest to me?

A: Because we receive such a high volume of applications, we require that you apply for a specific position. Each job opportunity has its own requirements, and you may be asked to answer prescreening questions that help us assess your skills, knowledge, and qualifications

Q: How can I find out which college/universities Stage Stores Visits?

A: You can follow us on Instagram and Twitter @stagecareers. We post pictures and updates of where we are!

Q: Is the Merchandising Executive Trainee position a temporary assignment?

A: No, you are a full time employee with Stage Stores. We describe the Merchandising Executive Trainee position as a training program that lasts 12 weeks, however that is just the training piece of your position. After the 12 weeks of training, you will be placed in a permanent merchandise office as an Assistant Buyer.

Q: How long do internship jobs last?

A: Typically an internship lasts 3 months.

Q: How can I apply for an internship?

A: Available Internship experiences are listed in the "Support Center" section.